

STUDENTS

Compulsory Attendance

Washington State law mandates that parents are responsible for seeing that their child(ren) eight years of age and under eighteen years of age attend school; and such child(ren) shall have the responsibility to and therefore shall attend for the full time when such school may be in session unless the child(ren) is enrolled in an approved private school, an educational center as provided in Chapter 28A.205 RCW, or is receiving home-based instruction.

Exceptions may be granted by the superintendent in the following circumstances:

- A. The student is physically or mentally unable to attend school.
- B. The student is sixteen years of age, regularly and lawfully employed, and either has parent permission or is emancipated pursuant to Chapter 13.64 RCW.
- C. Met graduation requirements.
- D. Received a certificate of educational competence.
- E. The student is attending a residential school operated by the Department of Social and Health Services.
- F. The student's parents have requested a temporary absence for purposes agreed to by the District and which will not cause a serious adverse effect on the student's educational process.

Any law enforcement officer authorized to make arrests can take a truant child into custody without a warrant and must then deliver the child to the parent or to the school.

The District shall not require enrollment for either (a) a minimum number of semesters or trimesters or (b) a minimum number of courses in a semester or trimester which exceeds the enrollment time or courses necessary for a student to meet established course, credit, and test requirements for high school graduation.
